Seventh Circuit CASA Program

November 2012

CASA Connection

As we near the end of 2012, we are proud to be able to see that we continue to grow in our efforts to provide advocacy for abused and neglected children. Not only are we continuing to serve children in Pennington County, but we have also extended our services to both Fall River and Custer Counties. The response from community members in the Southern Hills has been great with six volunteers currently trained. In 2013, we plan to build on the successes of 2012 and continue to advocate for more children, while spreading the message of CASA through the Black Hills. We have planned opportunities for not only Rapid City, but Southern Hills communities, to become more involved and help to ensure that abused and neglected children receive a voice. Through the kindness of community members, we will continue to strive to fulfill our mission of providing a voice for every child who needs one.

For the children,

Chad F. Catron
Executive Director

New Advocates Join The CASA Family

Six new CASA volunteers joined our family on November 2nd. These six individuals represent the communities of Hot Springs, Custer, Box Elder, and Rapid City. All will be serving the 7th Judicial Circuit, advocating for abused and neglected children. Thank you to all our volunteer trainers and Judge Thorstenson, who performed the swearing in ceremony. To learn how you can become involved, contact CASA today.

Support CASA

As a not for profit 501(c)3 organization, CASA relies on community support to ensure it's able to continue providing advocacy for abused and neglected children. There are many ways individuals support CASA: volunteering their time, making a donation, or attending events that benefit CASA. One of these ways is to reply to CASA's holiday appeal coming out the first week in November. Another way is to dine at Boston's the evening of November 26th. Boston's will be donating 15% of sales from all customers that either reference or present the coupon. Take the family to dinner and know that your supporting the 7th Circuit CASA Program.

Thank you to our September/October 2012 donors!
