

Seventh Circuit CASA Program

2650 Jackson Boulevard
Rapid City, SD 57702
Phone (605) 394-2203 • Fax (605) 394-3382

New Release – For Immediate Release

The Seventh Circuit Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) Program, based in Rapid City, SD is pleased to announce that Kehala Two Bulls has accepted the position of Executive Director beginning January 17, 2017. Mrs. Two Bulls joins us from the role as Program Manager for St. Elizabeth Shelter in Santa Fe, New Mexico and is relocating to Rapid City.

“We are honored to have Mrs. Two Bulls directing the Seventh Circuit CASA Program” said Kirsten Aasen, Chairman of the Board. “Her leadership and experience will steer the program to new heights. Her career has been committed to working for the most vulnerable members of the community.”

Two Bulls has dedicated her life to improving the lives of others through her work in family and women’s shelter programs and transitional housing facilities, as well as being a Licensed Mental Health Counselor. Two Bulls has created the Child Enrichment Fund, the Maternity and New Born Medical Respite Program and oversaw major construction remodel projects and improved housing placement outcomes across the board.

As Executive Director, Mrs. Two Bulls will be responsible for providing leadership to the staff, board and CASA volunteers, as well as managing resource development and fiscal accountability for the organization. Mrs. Two Bulls will work closely with key stakeholders including donors, supporters and the Seventh Judicial Circuit Court.

Over the past 30 years, the Seventh Circuit CASA Program has served more than 1,300 children in Pennington, Custer and Fall River counties. CASA volunteers advocate for the best interests of children in Abuse and Neglect cases. The Seventh Circuit CASA Program began in 1986, making it the first CASA Program in the state of South Dakota. If you would like to volunteer or donate, visit www.casaofrapidcity.org or call 605-394-2203.